

In Loving Memory

David Louis Baldi

December 28, 1948 – March 18, 2013

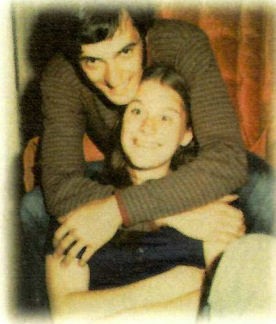

David Louis Baldi

David was born on December 28, 1948 to Louis and Lorraine Baldi. The first of three children, Dave grew up on Caroline Street in Alameda with his brother Stephen Baldi and sister Christine Baldi. He attended Mastick School, Washington School, and Encinal High School where he played the clarinet and was a member of the tennis and cross-country teams. Dave was an active member of the Boys and Girls Club, and was named "Boy of the Year" in 1966. After graduating from high school he attended Laney College for two years then transferred to Cal State Hayward, where he earned a degree in Sociology.

While working for the Alameda Recreation and Parks Department, Dave met Jane Broadbent. Dave and Jane married on July 22, 1972 at St. Barnabas Church in Alameda. Together they raised three children Sara Baldi, Hannah Smith, and Kyle Baldi. Dave is the proud grandfather of Hayden and Lily Smith and Antonio and Anicia Renghini. He delighted in gathering the family for dinners every week, where he sang and played the guitar to the enjoyment of all.

In 2009, after 32 years of dedicated service Dave retired from Central Contra Costa Sanitary District. After retirement Jane and Dave traveled to Williamsburg, VA, Hawaii and Aruba and cruised through the Panama Canal. Other than making home improvements and perusing the auctions, Dave's favorite pastimes included working in his garden and trying his luck at the casinos. He was devoted to his alma mater Encinal. He donated to the band and athletic teams, built sets for the annual musical, and helped to establish Senior Grad Night. In earlier years, he supported St. Barnabas School serving as School Board President, Harvest Festival chair, and Bingo chair. He was also an active member of the St. Barnabas Italian Catholic Federation.

Dave will always be remembered for his generous contributions to the community and love for his family.
